

ONLINE DATING SCAMS

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

You meet someone special on a dating website. Soon he wants to move off the dating site to email or phone calls. He tells you he loves you, but he lives far away — maybe for business, or because he's in the military.

Then he asks for money. He might say it's for a plane ticket to visit you. Or emergency surgery. Or something else urgent.

Scammers, both male and female, make fake dating profiles, sometimes using photos of other people — even stolen pictures of real military personnel. They build relationships — some even fake wedding plans — before they disappear with your money.

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO:

- 1 Stop. Don't send money.
Never wire money, put money on a prepaid debit card, or send cash to an online love interest. You won't get it back.
- 2 Pass this information on to a friend.
You may not have gotten one of these calls, but chances are you know someone who will get one — if they haven't already.

PASS IT ON!
